

RENEWAL APPLICATION FOR FACILITY OIL DISCHARGE CONTINGENCY PLAN

This form serves as an application for renewal of the approval of an oil discharge contingency plan for aboveground oil storage facilities subject to the provisions of 9 VAC 25-91-20 B 3. The facility operator must complete and submit this application 90 days prior to the five year expiration of the approval of the current contingency plan.

This form, with any changes or updates to the plan, must be submitted to the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) regional office in the area where the facility is located. A list of DEQ regional offices and their addresses may be obtained from the DEQ, Office of Spill Response and Remediation, P.O. Box 1105, Richmond, VA 23218 or on the web at: www.deq.virginia.gov There is no fee for renewal of the approval of a facility contingency plan.

Please check one of the following:

There are no changes to the currently approved contingency plan.

There have been significant changes to the plan and descriptions of the changes are attached.

For the purposes of this renewal application a significant change is:

1. A change of operator of the facility unless DEQ was previously notified of the change;
2. An increase in the maximum storage or handling capacity of the facility that would change the measures to limit the outflow of oil, response strategy or operational plan in the event of the worst case discharge;
3. A decrease in the availability of private personnel or equipment necessary to remove to the maximum extent practicable the worst case discharge and to mitigate or prevent a substantial threat of such a discharge;
4. A change in the type of product dealt in, stored or handled by any facility covered by the plan for which a Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) or its equivalent has not been submitted; or
5. A change in the method or operation utilized for the early detection of a discharge to groundwater.

There have been other than significant changes (such as, but not limited to administrative, procedural, operational) to the plan and descriptions of these changes are attached.
